

MODULE EIGHT

POST CRASH RESPONSIBILITY

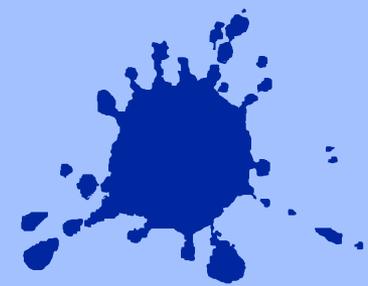

STOP

- ❗ Anyone who gets into a collision must stop.
 - ❗ Leaving the scene is also known as “HIT & RUN” and can be a felony.
 - ❗ This includes hitting property, animals, or pedestrians.
-

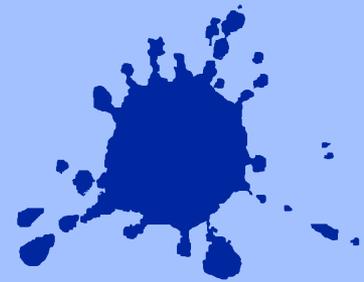

EVALAUTE

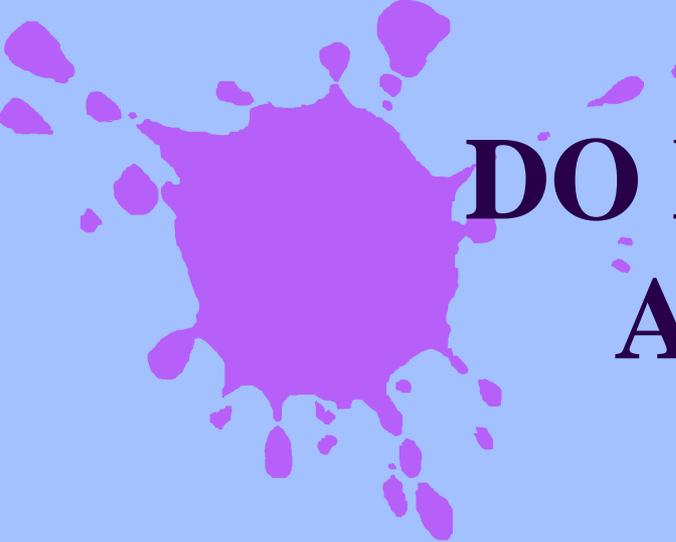

- ⑧ Are there any injuries?
 - ⑧ If so call 911
 - ⑧ If you are not injured and there are no other injuries, try to be of assistance, but never move an injured person unless it is to pull them to safety.
-

MOVE YOUR VEHICLE

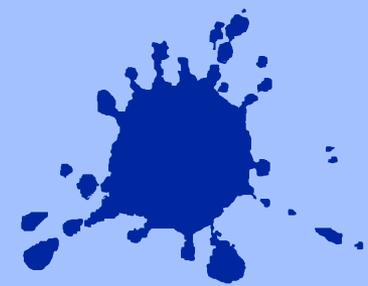

- Ⓜ If there are no injuries, clear the street so as not to be a hazard to others.
- Ⓜ Having the police complete an on scene police report is great if possible.
- Ⓜ NOTE: Not all fender benders with no injury, will be inspected by an officer
- Ⓜ If they do, get a copy of their report.

DO NOT GET INTO ARGUMENTS

- Ⓜ Do not discuss the crash, i.e. How it happened, or who might be at fault.
- Ⓜ NEVER ADMIT GUILT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES!

CARRY A DISPOSABLE CAMERA?

- ❧ If possible, do take photos of all damages and participants in the crash.
- ❧ Note the weather conditions
- ❧ Skid marks
- ❧ Road obstructions or any other contributing factor
- ❧ You want to be prepared to have a discussion with your insurance company

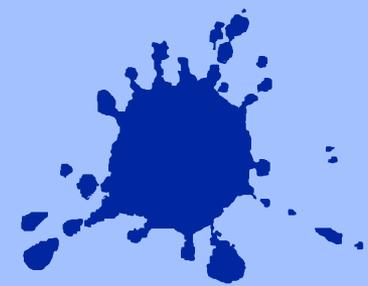

EXCHANGE ALL PERTINENT INFORMATION

- ⑧ Vehicle Registration
 - ⑧ Drivers License Information
 - ⑧ Insurance information
 - ⑧ Yes! You must give this according to law
-

LOOK FOR FRIENDLY WITNESSES

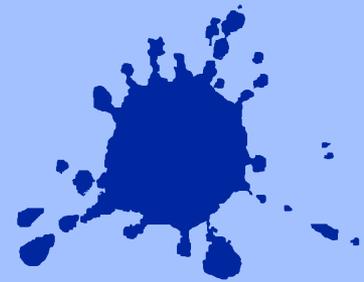

- ① Get their names and telephone numbers

NEVER ACCEPT MONETARY COMPENSATION

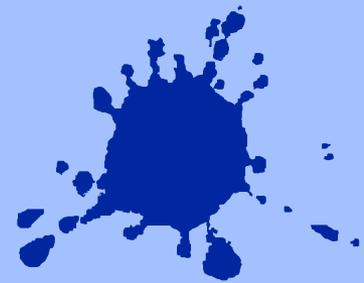

- ⌚ The damage from most crashes, medical bills, and repairs are often much more than you anticipate

STAY CALM NO MATTER WHAT HAPPENS

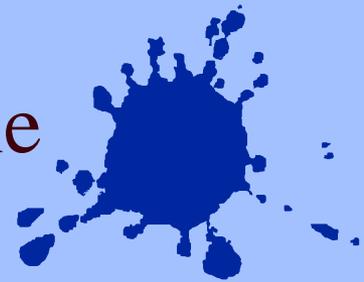

- ⌚ If you are shaken, try to think clearly
- ⌚ If you are in a “HIT & RUN” gather your wits and get a license number and description of the vehicle that hit you.
- ⌚ Never engage in a chase, you don’t know what they will do

CARRY EMERGENCY EQUIPMENT

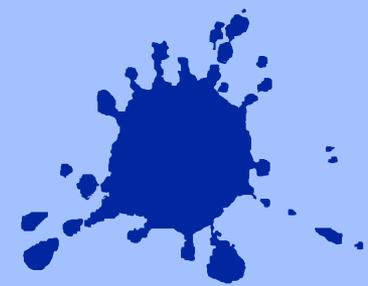

- ⑧ Cellular phone
- ⑧ Flashlight
- ⑧ First aid kit
- ⑧ Flat tire repair
- ⑧ Reflective triangles or flares
- ⑧ Blanket
- ⑧ Auto club membership if you have one

WASHINGTON STATE REQUIRES:

Proof of insurance

-  $25,000.00 Or more, bodily injury or death of one person
 -  $50,000.00 Or more, bodily injury or death of two or more persons
 -  $10,000.00 Or more, for injury or destruction of property of others in any one accident
-

WASHINGTON STATE REQUIRES ALSO:

A COLLISION REPORT IF:

 There is $700 or more in damage

 There is an injury.

 There is a death.

 NOTE: This report must be turned in with 4 days

